Letter from the President

Neighbors, you are COOL! Suburban Acres is the recipient of Norfolk's fiscal year 2013-2014 COOL (Civic Opportunity and Outstanding Leadership) Award in the Best Overall Neighborhood Category.

The COOL awards are presented annually by the Department of Neighborhood Development to honor work on neighborhood events and projects, efforts to increase volunteerism, to enhance quality of life, and to improve neighborhood unity, coordination, and communication. Susan Thornes and I had the honor of accepting the award on behalf of the neighborhood on September 20th at the Norfolk Neighborhood Expo.

Speaking of neighborhood events, we're trying a slightly different take this year for our October neighborhood get-together. We have had a "Harvest Festival" off and on for the past few years, but will be incorporating the most popular element of last year's festival at our October 13th civic league meeting...the Crock Pot Cook-off! So bring your favorite crock pot dish to share with your neighbors. At last year's Harvest Fest we had three different chili recipes and a beef stew (I'll use more salt this year, Bud). We'll have drinks and cornbread...you bring the crock pot. Director Dave Moeller is scouting for a suitably fabulous prize for the best crock pot Minutes from the August 11th meeting approved without correction.

Community Resource Officer Report – Officer Old mentioned 3 Larcenies in our area in August. One around the 7300 Block of Granby where $2200 dollars worth of cooper drain spouts were stolen and on the 200 block of Forsyth, a shed was broken into and a generator taken.

While October 13th may be a little early for Halloween costumes, this meeting will be scary for some...we'll have politicians in attendance! Suzanne Patrick, Democratic candidate for Virginia's 2nd Congressional District will appear, as well as guests to postulate on the statewide constitutional amendment, and the elected school board question that will be on the Norfolk ballot.

Come join us for an informational meeting, and if history is any guide, some great chili!

Eggleston Services provides guest speaker for September SACL meeting

Rear Admiral (retired) Fenton F. Priest, III of Eggleston Services was the guest speaker at the September 8th Suburban Acres Civic League meeting. Priest is the Vice President of Business Services and Retail Operations for Eggleston, a non-profit that provides services to persons with intellectual and physical disabilities in Hampton Roads.

According to Priest, Eggleston's mission as a non-profit is helping provide individuals with disabilities choice and successful, satisfying careers as well as growing the local work force.

Eggleston celebrates its 60th anniversary next year; the organization was established in 1955 as the Tidewater Vocational Center. Today Eggleston is the largest employer of individuals with disabilities in eastern Virginia.

In order to place clients in positions where they will grow and be successful, Priest says clients are assessed by vocational and disability specialists to determine what the client would enjoy and what type of position would be suitable. After placement, whether that job is with Eggleston or private industry, job coaches follow up with clients and employers and visit the job site regularly to assist clients develop skills.

Eggleston also has several residential group homes in the Hampton Roads area that help clients develop a sense of independence.

In addition to placing clients with private businesses, Eggleston operates a number of retail businesses and services in Tidewater, with the goal of providing as many employment opportunities as possible to those with disabilities. Eggleston operations run the gamut from business services such as digitizing files and bulk shredding, to customized embroidery services, to retail stores.

Let's Go Pet Care and Tanner's Creek Garden Center are two popular nearby retail locations operated by Eggleston; both are on Lavallette Avenue in Riverview.

Let's Go provides self-service dog washing; pet feeding, sitting, and walking services; and doggie day care.

About sixteen persons with disabilities work in the greenhouse complex at Tanner's Creek Garden Center. Those workers grow plants from seeds and seedlings that eventually wind up for sale at the garden center. In addition to indoor and outdoor plants, Tanner's Creek also offers a full range of garden accessories including new college and NFL team-themed lawn flags.

A new specialty area for Tanner's Creek is the wetlands plants program. Priests says since wetland restoration and preservation projects are more common now, it can be difficult to find suitable plants in a large enough quantity. He says Eggleston employees start plants such as Spartina Alterniflora (Cord Grass) and Spartina patens (Salt Meadow Hay) from very small plugs and grow them in the greenhouses. The project began with 1000 plugs each of Cord Grass and Salt Meadow Hay.

SUBURBAN ACRES GREEN

By Karen Mayne

October 2014 – Fire Safety

National Fire Prevention Week is October 5 - 11, although the entire month is a good time to learn more about preventing fires. A fire safe home is definitely a green home!

In Virginia, fire departments respond to a fire about every fifteen minutes, with an average of 115 deaths each year, mostly in homes. The National Fire Prevention Association says that two thirds of home fire deaths are in homes without smoke detectors or where the detectors are not working. The leading cause of home fires is unattended cooking, followed by heating equipment. Here are fire prevention tips from Norfolk Fire and Rescue and the National Fire Prevention Association.

Smoke Detectors – Every home should have at least one smoke detector on each level of the house (including basements and attached garages), and preferably, one detector inside and outside of each bedroom. Norfolk residents can request a free smoke detector, which will be installed by Norfolk Fire and Rescue, at 757-664-6616. Detectors should be checked monthly, and batteries should be replaced every six months when Daylight Savings Time comes and goes. Detectors must be replaced every 10 years. Some brands come with built-in batteries that do not need to be replaced and chirp at the end of 10 years. If you use oil, gas or wood heat, have a carbon monoxide detector as well.

Escape Plan – Every home should have an escape plan that includes two ways out from all locations. Houses with two floors should keep a fire escape ladder at a central window. The escape plan should be practiced twice a year (without using the escape ladder). Practicing the escape plan is especially important if there are children or elderly in the home.

Cooking – Stay in the kitchen when cooking on the stovetop and while broiling!! If you must leave, turn off the oven. For a fire on the stovetop, put a lid over the pan. If the fire is inside the oven, turn the oven off. Never pour water on a grease fire. Keep a fire extinguisher mounted in the kitchen – inside the sink cabinet will keep the extinguisher handy.

Heating – Most home fires related to heating equipment are due to creosote build-up in chimneys. All equipment used for heating – furnaces, fireplaces, wood stoves, gas logs – should be checked and cleaned annually. Space heaters should not be used with extension cords and must be kept at least three feet away from any flammable materials such as curtains and furniture. Don't use old space heaters without an automatic shut-off feature in case it is tipped over.

Outdoor Grilling – Use grills at least 10 feet away from the house and never use them on balconies and porches. Keep a fire extinguisher nearby.

Smoking and Candles – If you smoke, smoke outdoors. Never smoke in bed or when sleepy. Put candles in containers that prevent tipping and blow them out when leaving the room and before going to sleep. Better yet, avoid candles altogether (the smoke can cause allergies and asthma); use realistic LED candles instead.

Voter registration deadline looms for Nov. 4 General Election

The deadline to register for the November 4th general election is October 14th. Virginians can register at the Norfolk Office of Elections, Department of Motor Vehicles branches, or online at www.elections.virginia.gov (if you have a Virginia DMV issued driver's license or photo I.D. with a DMV identification card number).

The general election features the U.S. Senate race between incumbent Sen. Mark Warner (D), Republican operative and former lobbyist Ed Gillespie, and Libertarian candidate Robert Sarvis. Suburban Acres voters will also choose between incumbent Scott Rigell (R, Virginia Beach) and challenger Suzanne Patrick (D, Virginia Beach), a retired Navy Commander and former Undersecretary of Defense, as Virginia's 2nd Congressional District representative.

There will also be a state constitutional question on the ballot which, if approved by voters, would allow real estate tax exemptions for the surviving spouse of any member of the armed forces who was killed in action.

Norfolk voters will also decide whether to switch to direct election of school board members, who are currently appointed by City Council.

Virginia's new voter identification rules also apply for the upcoming election; you must have a valid form of photo identification to vote.

The Norfolk Office of Elections can issue residents an acceptable I.D. card that can be used for voting only. The Office is hosting a Voter Photo ID event on Friday, October 10th from 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the Mary D. Pretlow Anchor Branch Library, 111 W. Ocean View Avenue.

I.D.'s can also be obtained at the Office of Elections during normal business hours, at 810 Union Street (City Hall Building), Room 808 from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday. For more information visit the Norfolk Office of Elections website at www.norfolk.gov/elections or call 664-4353.

Presented by Dr. Brad Robinson

Wellness Plan Challenges

Achieving optimum health is an ongoing process, and there are no "quick fixes." The key is to focus on one or two "bite sized" challenges at a time to improve wellness.

Challenge: Adjust your schedule to accommodate adequate sleep time.

The destructive effects of sleep debt are frequently downplayed or ignored. Even modest sleep deprivation is linked with headaches, fluctuations in blood sugar levels, decreased mental function, and increased likelihood of depression and anxiety—and it may hasten the aging process.

How much sleep is enough? Although everyone has a unique body clock, most people function best with eight to nine hours per day. The key is to listen to your body.

Challenge: Schedule an appointment for a chiropractic checkup.

Dr. Robinson focuses on detecting and correcting dysfunctional regions in the spine called vertebral subluxations—a condition that occurs when motion is restricted of spinal bones are out of alignment. Chiropractors eliminate vertebral subluxations with gentle maneuvers called chiropractic adjustments. Studies show that adjustments effectively correct and prevent subluxations, and the conditions associated with them like back and neck pain, headache, immune dysfunction, and carpal tunnel syndrome.
